0 2Item A: Premium Motors

Janet owns and runs Premium Motors based in Manchester. Her business provides a luxury chauffeur service (a car and driver are hired). This has proved popular with customers who book the services for events such as weddings or parties.

Since the business started 10 years ago it has expanded slowly using organic growth. Janet would like to expand by offering the services in a new area. Her research has shown that chauffeur services are in the most demand in London. However, this is a highly competitive market.

There is an opportunity to take over an existing chauffeur company called London Luxury Cars (LLC). This takeover would cost £400 000. Premium Motors would instantly gain LLC's large customer base. This includes repeat bookings from TV celebrities and well-known hotels that book chauffeur services for their guests. Existing LLC agreements (contracts) with hotels will last for another year and Janet will then have to agree new contracts.

If Janet were to take over LLC, she would manage the company from her headquarters in Manchester. She is unfamiliar with the London area.

0 2 . 1

Identify two objectives of a business.

[2 marks]

- 1 _____

- 2 _____

Item B: Premium Motors

Janet has decided not to expand the business in London as demand for its services has increased in the Manchester area. A new website now helps to manage the increase in enquiries. Customers can look at the cars from a web page of photos and videos. They can use the live online chat service to ask questions and get instant feedback. There is no set price for the hire of a car. The price depends on several factors, such as:

- distance and day of the journey
- the amount of time the car is needed
- the number of pickup and drop off locations.

At present there are no prices for car hire on the website. Customers must telephone a salesperson between 9 am and 6 pm Monday to Friday to agree the price of their car hire booking.

Premium Motors prides itself on the quality of its service. Drivers are encouraged to greet customers with a smile and engage in conversation several times throughout the journey. Janet has previously issued new drivers with a leaflet outlining the company policy on customer service.

Janet is considering introducing a new induction training programme for the new drivers. It will include:

- a video of an experienced driver dealing with a customer
- a role play exercise where a new driver can practise dealing with difficult customers.

Item C: Fone ltd

Fone ltd produces ultra-thin mobile phone cases and accessories. The managing director Anita Wang started the business with her three brothers 15 years ago. Each of them provided £50 000 capital. Each member of the family has an equal number of shares. The brothers take no part in the running of the business. Fone ltd plans to spend £2 million introducing one new product and expanding the product range of the business. This expansion will be funded by a loan.

Two possible options to expand the product range are:

1. introduce car phone holders
2. introduce headphones.

The business will recruit a team leader for the new production department. Anita is keen to attract an experienced manager. The salary and benefits for the job are above the average for the local area. She wants someone who can lead the new department effectively to help the success of the expansion.

Item D: Fone Ltd

Demand for the ultra-thin phone cases has been increasing. However, the production department has not been able to make them in the quantity required. Fone Ltd has decided that it will introduce flow production in the department.

Specialist machinery was installed in April. In the new flow production process, workers have specific jobs, such as loading different coloured materials into the machines. The process will allow changes to be made quickly, such as the shape and style of the phone cases for different makes and models of phones. The new flow production process means the business can produce up to 100 000 phone cases a month.

Table 2 Information on production of phone cases at Fone Ltd

	March	April	May	June
Number of employees in the production department	14	10	10	10
Total costs	£160 000	£179 000	£234 000	£275 000
Total output (number of phone cases)	20 000	25 600	?	50 000
Average unit cost of each phone case	£8	£7	£6	£5.50

0 3 . 4

Identify one reason for diseconomies of scale occurring.

[1 mark]

0 3 . 5

Using the information in Table 2, calculate the average number of phone cases per month produced from April to June.

Answer _____

Item E: Fone Ltd

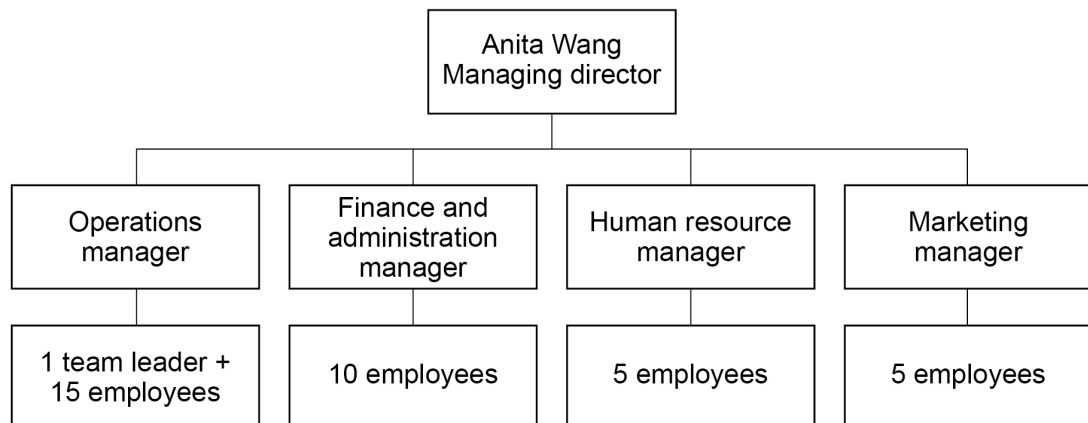

Average unit costs have increased recently at Fone Ltd. Anita feels that low employee productivity is the reason for this. To improve productivity, she is considering two options.

Introduce a new lean production technique

- Each department can have a group of up to three employees making suggestions on how to improve the process to lead to higher productivity.
- It will be optional to join these groups.
- Groups can be set up immediately and will have responsibility for reviewing roles and tasks within the department and suggesting changes.
- There will be a bonus of £5000 for each department (to be shared within the department) if they improve productivity in the next three months.

Change the organisational structure and recruit internally for new assistant managers within each department

- Internal recruitment for assistant managers can be completed within a month.
- This will result in a pay rise of £5000 for successful applicants.
- Assistant managers will have the authority to make some decisions and will oversee training.
